

16th Sunday after Pentecost

September 8, 2024

James tells us to stop showing favoritism in the assembly, treating the rich visitor with more honor than the poor one. Jesus himself seems to show partiality in his first response to the Syrochenaean woman in today's gospel. Was he testing her faith in saying Gentiles don't deserve the goods meant for God's children? Or was he speaking out of his human worldview, but transcended those limits when she took him by surprise with her reply? Either way, the story tells us that God shows no partiality. Everyone who brings a need to Jesus is received with equal honor as a child and heir.

The Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Holy Trinity

Holy Communion 9:00 AM

Sunday School 10:15 AM

Welcome in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ!

Our worship follows a traditional order inspired by scripture and rooted in ancient patterns. The full order for worship (liturgy) is found in this bulletin.

*Please stand as you are able. Spoken congregational responses are in Bold.

GATHERING

Worship begins with the organ prelude. It's a time for silent meditation as we turn our hearts and minds to God.

ORGAN PRELUDE

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

GATHERING

Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, who forgives all our sin, whose mercy endures forever. Amen.

PRAYER

Let us pray. Almighty God, we come to you open and willing to be in relationship with you again. You know our hearts and our innermost secrets. We call on you now to make us whole, refresh us, and bless us so that we may do your holy work in the world by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, and through our Savior Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Let us confess our sins in the presence of God and of one another: God of Grace, have mercy on us. We confess that we have turned from you and given ourselves into the power of sin. We humbly repent and we want to be close to you again. In your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things we have done and things we have failed to do. Restore our relationship with you. Uphold us and strengthen us with your Holy Spirit, so that we may live and serve you once again through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

God loved us even when we were dead in sin, and made us alive together with Christ. By grace you have been saved through faith. In the name of † Jesus Christ, all of your sins are forgiven. May God strengthen you with power through the Holy Spirit, that you may know Jesus' great mercy and love for you. Amen.

THE WORD OF GOD

First Reading: Isaiah 35:4-7a

⁴Say to those who are of a fearful heart, "Be strong, do not fear! Here is your God. He will come with vengeance, with terrible recompense. He will come and save you." ⁵Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; ⁶then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy. For waters shall break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert; ^{7a}the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water. The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm

Tone:

R:

I will praise the LORD as long as I live.

PSALM: Psalm 146

¹Hal-¹ lelujah!

Praise the LORD,¹ O my soul!

²I will praise the LORD as long¹ as I live;

I will sing praises to my God while I¹ have my being.

³Put not your¹ trust in rulers,
in mortals in whom there¹ is no help.

⁴When they breathe their last, they re-¹ turn to earth, and in that day¹ their thoughts perish. R

⁵Happy are they who have the God of Jacob¹ for their help, whose hope is in the¹ LORD their God;

⁶who made heaven and earth, the seas, and all that ¹ is in them;
who keeps promis- ¹ es forever;

⁷who gives justice to those who are oppressed, and food to ¹ those who hunger.

The LORD sets the ¹ captive free.

⁸The LORD opens the eyes of the blind; the LORD lifts up those who ¹ are bowed down;
the LORD ¹ loves the righteous. R

⁹The LORD cares ¹ for the stranger;
the LORD sustains the orphan and widow, but frustrates the way ¹ of the wicked.

¹⁰The LORD shall ¹ reign forever,
your God, O Zion, throughout all generations. ¹ Hallelujah! R

⁸The LORD opens the eyes of the blind; the LORD lifts up those who ¹ are bowed down;
the LORD ¹ loves the righteous. R

⁹The LORD cares ¹ for the stranger;
the LORD sustains the orphan and widow, but frustrates the way ¹ of the wicked.

¹⁰The LORD shall ¹ reign forever,
your God, O Zion, throughout all generations. ¹ Hallelujah! R

SECOND READING - James 2:1-10 [11-13] 14-17

¹My brothers and sisters, do you with your acts of favoritism really believe in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ? ²For if a person with gold rings and in fine clothes comes into your assembly, and if a poor person in dirty clothes also comes in, ³and if you take notice of the one wearing the fine clothes and say, "Have a seat here, please," while to the one who is poor you say, "Stand there," or, "Sit at my feet," ⁴have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? ⁵Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Has not God chosen the poor in the world to be rich in faith and to be heirs of the kingdom that he has promised to those who love him? ⁶But you have dishonored the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you? Is it not they who drag you into court?

⁷Is it not they who blaspheme the excellent name that was invoked over you?
⁸You do well if you really fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." ⁹But if you show partiality, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. ¹⁰For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it. [¹¹For the one who said, "You shall not commit adultery," also said, "You shall not murder." Now if you do not commit adultery but if you murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. ¹²So speak and so act as those who are to be judged by the law of liberty. ¹³For judgment will be without mercy to anyone who has shown no mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment.] ¹⁴What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you? ¹⁵If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, ¹⁶and one of you says to them, "Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill," and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that? ¹⁷So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead. The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

*GOSPEL - Mark 7:24-37

The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark the 7th chapter.

Glorify to you, O Lord. (spoken)

²⁴[Jesus] set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, ²⁵but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. ²⁶Now the woman was a

Gentile, of Syrophoenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. ²⁷He said to her, "Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs." ²⁸But she answered him, "Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs." ²⁹Then he said to her, "For saying that, you may go—the demon has left your daughter." ³⁰So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone. ³¹Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. ³²They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him. ³³He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue. ³⁴Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened." ³⁵And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. ³⁶Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. ³⁷They were astounded beyond measure, saying, "He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak." The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

CHILDREN'S MESSAGE The Rev. Althea Seidel

BLESSING OF THE BACKPACKS

God, our teacher, you help us to understand the world around us. We thank you for the opportunity each year to educate ourselves in school. You have blessed our communities with teachers, staff, and families who take new skills and ideas and pass them along to each new class of children. All children are unique with their own minds that grow and develop in their own ways and at different speeds. We are all special to you.

Jesus said, "Let the children come to me and do not stop them, God's kingdom is made up of children like these." Then he laid his hands on them and went on his way. Matthew 19:13-15

We celebrate the beginning of this school year and we ask for your blessings upon the children, teachers, staff, and families who support them all.

Let us pray. In our backpacks we carry books, pencils, crayons, notebooks, new feelings, unanswered questions, and hopeful expectations. There are many possibilities of what this year will bring, what we will learn, who we will meet, and who we will become. God is our friend and he is always with us. We are reminded today that God will be with us through it all. We thank you God for all the people who help us learn and grow . In Jesus name, Amen.

he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.
