trinity tidings is the newsletter of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, 723 Lehman Street, Lebanon, PA 17046

"I woke up this morning - saw a world full of trouble
now. I thought, "How'd we ever get so far down?"
and "How's it ever gonna turn around?" So, I turned my eyes to heaven and I said,
"God, why don't You do something?"
He said, "I did. I created you."

Luther's Small Catechism

The CARE Class will resume its study of the Lutheran Catechism on Sunday, October 5. Lessons will focus on the 10 Commandments using Luther's Small Catechism—written as a foundation for our youth—and Large Catechism—written for adults, especially for parents and teachers, which Luther wrote in conjunction with each other in 1529. The class is open to everyone, even if you can attend only occasionally. The class meets immediately after worship in the Social Room. Coffee, tea and a sweet-treat are provided to carry you over to lunch, including anyone who is unable to attend class.

Devotional for September with excerpts from Searching for Sunday by Rachel Held Evans

Rachel Held Evans recounts the many ways Jesus talked about the reign of God:

Jesus didn't talk much about the church, but he talked a lot about the kingdom....

In contrast to every other kingdom that has been and ever will be, this kingdom belongs to the poor, Jesus said, and to the peacemakers, the merciful, and those who hunger and thirst for God. In this kingdom, the people from the margins and the bottom rungs will be lifted up to places of honor, seated at the best spots at the table. This kingdom knows no geographic boundaries, no political parties, no single language or culture. It advances not through power and might, but through acts of love and joy and peace, missions of mercy and kindness and humility. This kingdom has arrived, not with a trumpet's sound but with a baby's cries, not with the vanquishing of enemies but with the forgiving of them, not on the back of a warhorse but on the back of a donkey, not with triumph and a conquest but with a death and a resurrection....

When we consider all the messes the church has made throughout history, all the havoc she has wreaked and the things she has destroyed, when we face up to just how different the church looks from the kingdom most of the time, it's easy to think maybe Jesus left us with a raw deal. Maybe he pulled a bait and switch, selling us on the kingdom and then slipping us the church.

Evans names how the church is called to manifest the kingdom of God:

This word for church, ekklesia, was used at the time of Jesus to refer... to the people of God, assembled together. So church is, essentially, a gathering of kingdom citizens, called out—from their individuality, from their sins, from their old ways of doing things, from the world's way of doing things—into participation in this new kingdom and community with one another....

The purpose of the church, and of the sacraments, is to give the world a glimpse of the kingdom, to point in its direction....

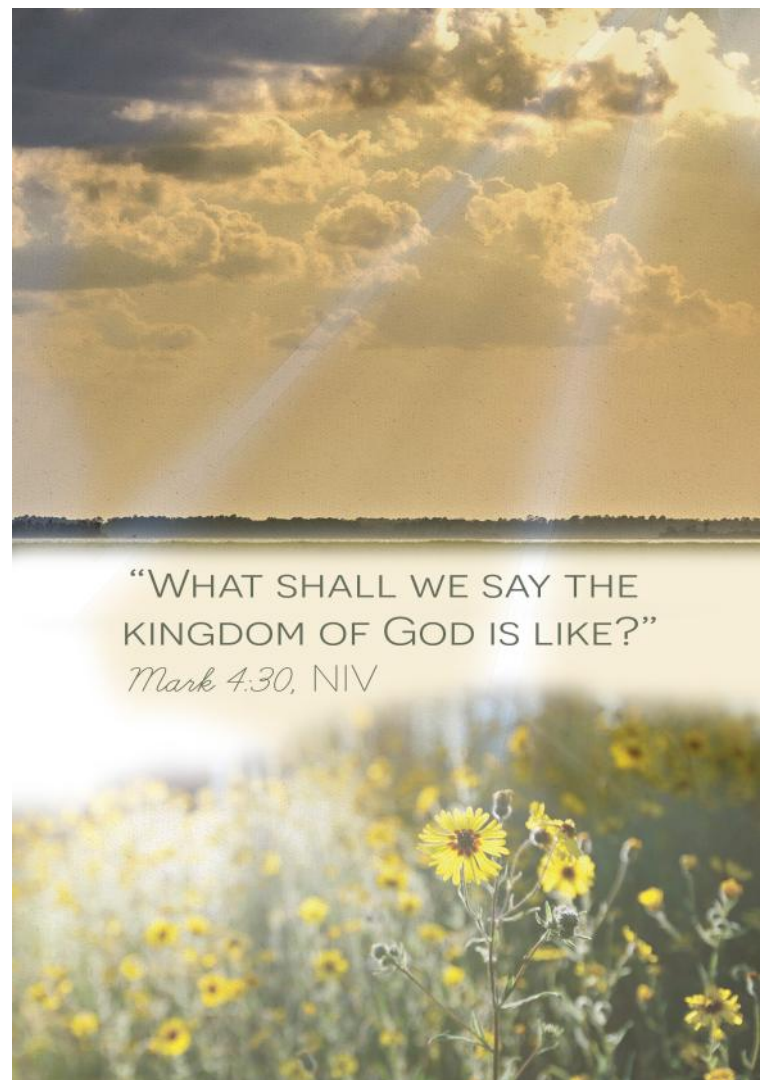

In this sense, church gives us the chance to riff on Jesus' description of the kingdom, to add a few new metaphors of our own. We might say the kingdom is like St. Lydia's in Brooklyn where strangers come together and remember Jesus when they eat. The kingdom is like the Refuge in Denver, where addicts and academics, single moms and suburban housewives come together to tell each other the truth. The kingdom is like Thistle Farms where women heal from abuse by helping to heal others....

And even still, the kingdom remains a mystery just beyond our grasp.... All we have are almost and not quite and wayside shrines. All we have are imperfect people in an imperfect world doing their best to produce outward signs of inward grace and stumbling all along the way.

Rachel Held Evans is a well-known public theologian who wrote many books and articles on faith, God's love, grace, and life experiences. Unfortunately, Evans passed away in 2019, but her legacy, strong faith, and Christian spirit lives on.

PRAY FOR STUDENTS

As children return to school once again this year please join me in prayer for all school students, teachers, staff and parents. Thank you.

- Karen Weaver,
Northwest Elementary School Liaison

Dear Heavenly Father,

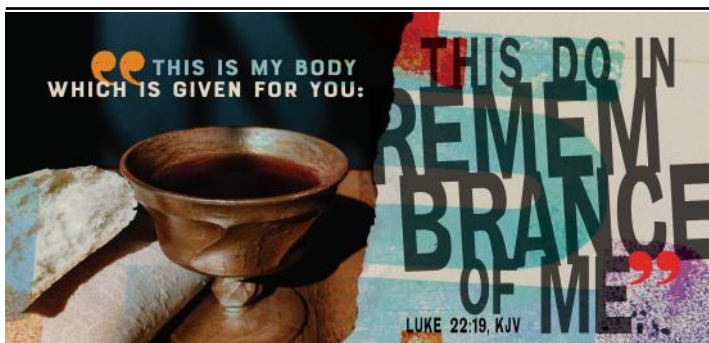

We come to you seeking your guidance and blessings as we embark on a new school year. Please watch over all the students, teachers, staff and parents. God of knowledge and wisdom bless all students as they begin this new school year. Help them discover and develop the gifts you have given them. As they grow in knowledge help them to also grow in kindness and compassion, learning respect for themselves and others.

Father we thank you for giving us people with the gift of teaching our children. Grant all teachers the strength to inspire, the courage to guide and the resilience to face each day with enthusiasm. May their efforts shine brightly and inspire countless hearts.

We also ask your blessing on parents and all those who care for students. Please give them the strength and wisdom to support their children throughout this school year. Help them to be a source of encouragement and love.

And as we pray for this new school year Father remind us that wherever we go you are always with us. Please let your love shine through in all that we do. Let it be a year filled with your grace, favor and goodness.

Amen

Lutheran World Relief Update

WELCA thanks you for your generous contributions to our Lutheran World Relief school kits and personal care kits campaign this year. On September 14th I will share with you the kit totals for this campaign and make an additional request for monetary assistance with the shipping costs to provide these kits to people in need around the world. Cash or check donations can be made by using an envelope designated for "Lutheran World Relief Shipping Costs" available in the pew pockets and also at the welcome tables located in the narthex and at the back door of the church. If you are making a check donation please make it payable to Holy Trinity Lutheran Church with Lutheran World Relief Shipping Costs written in the memo line of the check. Again thank you for all the support you have bestowed on this campaign thus far and we would be very grateful if you would consider this additional donation to help reduce shipping costs for the kits and quilts to reach our most weary neighbors and surround them with warmth, dignity and hope.

Women of the ELCA

WELCA Picnic

On Wednesday, August 20th 20 ladies in silly and very mismatched attire met for a very “mixed up” affair. There were lots of laughs, fun games and silly dances and singing of goofy songs, not to mention a wonderful potluck of delicious food!

There were so many crazy and creative outfits that night, but the 3 that stood out the most won prizes. They were:

- 1st Place: Denise McDaniels
- 2nd Place: Darla Kise
- 3rd Place: Carol Koehler

The room was adorned with several holiday decorations that, of course, did not match! Different holiday candies were scattered on the tables so everyone could make a goodie bag to take home.

A beanbag toss, scavenger hunt and a photo booth were among the games and activities that were enjoyed by all.

Sticking with the “mixed bag” theme, the evening’s agenda was also mixed up!

The WELCA Benediction was said at the opening of the party and the Blessing of the food was at the end of the evening.

AAAND where else can you EAT DESSERT FIRST!!??

WELCA is always welcoming new ladies!! We meet on the 3rd Wednesday of each month at 6:00 pm on the 2nd floor. Our next meeting will be on September 17th at 6:00 pm. Please come and try it out!!

Handbell Tour

Four bell choir members took a tour of the Malmark Handbell facility on August 7 in Plumstedville, PA. Malmark handbells and handchimes are the ones we use in our church. After receiving the metal pieces, every part of the bell is hand crafted at the facility by a staff of 35 people. We saw each step from shaping the bell and chime to tuning, shining, refurbishing and shipping them. Carol Koehler, Rita White, Heather Buffington and Pastor Althea (photo on right) had a great time traveling, eating lunch, and learning the craft of making and maintaining handbells and handchimes.

September 24: The Astonishing Dawn Redwood by Dr. Len Eiserer

Finding a remnant population of supposedly extinct Dawn Redwoods in a remote Chinese valley was one of the most important botanical discoveries of the 20th century. Join tree hobbyist Len Eiserer for a presentation about the incredible past, thriving present, and sparkling future of the Dawn Redwood, a living fossil.

Len Eiserer received his Bachelor’s degree from the University of Maine and doctorate in Psychology from Bryn Mawr College. He’s taught for 40 years and currently teaches at Harrisburg Area Community College (HACC). He maintains the website, Tree Treasurers of Lancaster County, and serves on the boards of the Friends of the Tanger and the Kaneko Arboretums.

Program starts at 7 p.m. in Luther’s Place.

CAN YOU HELP?

Paul “PJ” Copenhaver: Minister of Music and Choir Director

As an almost lifelong member of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, I never dreamed that I would now be currently serving as Minister of Music and Choir Director. I have been a member of HTLC for over 50 years and soon it will be 30 years of leading the church’s music programs. Deeply rooted in the life of the congregation, I bring my passion for music and worship to every aspect of this role.

I select the hymns for weekly services and actively collaborate in shaping the liturgy throughout the year. In addition to planning music for worship, I lead both the Senior and Youth Choirs, preparing them through regular rehearsals and guiding their musical offerings during services. I help organize and participate in special musical services across the church calendar, enriching the worship experience for all. I am also the chairman of the Worship and Music committee, play in the Psalm ringers bell choir and play brass for special services.

One of the special parts of my job is to listen to members when they bring me stories of their past or special hymns that mean a lot to them. I always try to find a way to make it a part of an upcoming service. I consider it a blessing to serve the church that helped form my faith, and I am honored to now give back through the gift of music and ministry. If you ever need to reach me, I can be contacted at 717-507-8247 or pjcopenhaver@gmail.com.

Seasons of Change, Signs of Grace

"While the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease" (Genesis 8:22, NASB.)

As autumn begins, we watch the world transform before our eyes. Leaves change color, the air turns crisp, and a new rhythm settles in. In these seasonal shifts, we are reminded of God's faithful hand over all of creation.

Genesis 8:22 assures us that the cycles of nature—seedtime and harvest, summer and winter—are part of God's ongoing promise. Each season speaks of His order, care, and presence. Autumn, in particular, invites reflection. Just as the trees release their leaves, we are called to let go of what no longer serves us and make space for renewal.

This season also marks a return to routines—school schedules, church programs, and community events. As we step into new responsibilities or revisit familiar ones, may we do so with gratitude and trust. God is not only present in the harvest but in the quiet letting go.

Let this autumn be a time to embrace God's steady rhythm, find beauty in change, and rest in His faithful promises that never cease—even as the world around us shifts.

Christian Symbol

BURNING BUSH — In Exodus 3, God speaks to Moses from a bush that is burning but not consumed. When Moses asks what he should say if the Egyptians questions who sent him to lead the Israelites out of slavery, God states, "I AM WHO I AM." Centuries later, when people wonder who Jesus is, his answers hint at his divinity: "I AM the light of the world; I AM the good shepherd; I AM the bread of life" and, perhaps most profoundly, "Before Abraham was, I AM" (John 8:58). On Pentecost, God's Holy Spirit comes upon the apostles as fire. Thus the burning bush is a powerful symbol of God's presence echoed through time.

A Prayer for Autumn's Arrival

Lord of all seasons, As the leaves change and the days grow cooler, help me embrace the rhythm of your creation. Teach me to let go of what I no longer need and to trust your timing in every part of life.

Thank you for the beauty of autumn—for crisp mornings, golden trees, and the promise of harvest. May this season deepen my gratitude, renew my spirit, and draw me closer to your heart.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

REMINDER BOARD

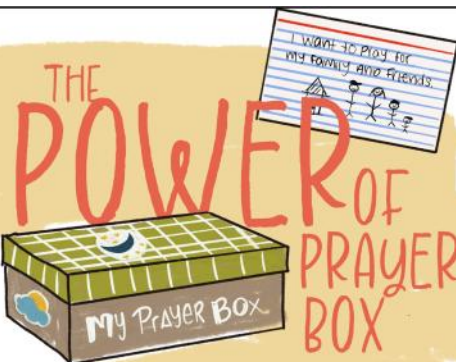

Start off the school year right by making this wipe-off board, which can help you remember important things.

What you need:

- Adult help
- 5" x 7" picture frame with glass (available at a dollar store)
- Lined notebook paper
- Scissors
- Low-heat glue gun
- Buttons, ribbon, stickers or foam shapes
- 1" piece of Velcro
- Erasable marker

What you do:

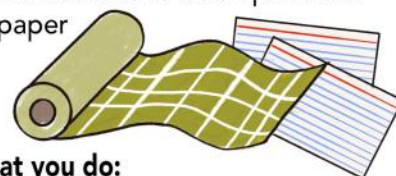

1. Using the cardboard insert or picture from the frame as a pattern, cut the notebook paper to fit the frame. Then insert it behind the glass.
2. Decorate the outside of the frame by gluing on buttons, ribbon, stickers or foam shapes.
3. Glue one side of the Velcro to the erasable pen and one side to the frame. Then attach the pen to the frame.
4. Place the board on your desk, dresser or kitchen counter. On the glass, write daily reminders about assignments and activities.

Create a simple and meaningful prayer box your family can use to share requests and pray together all week long.

What you need:

- Shoebox with lid
- Wrapping paper or decorative paper
- Scissors & tape
- Markers or crayons
- Stickers and other craft material (optional)
- Pens or pencils
- Index cards or small pieces of paper

What you do:

1. Wrap the shoebox like a gift, wrapping the lid separately so it can be opened.
2. As a family, decorate the box with drawings, favorite Bible verses, photos, or stickers.
3. Place the box somewhere central, like the kitchen or living room.
4. Keep index cards and pens nearby. When someone has a prayer request, they can write or draw it and drop it in.
5. Throughout the week, take turns praying over the requests as a family, or have a parent lead prayer time.

Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful.
